

WILLIAM DIAL KILLS ASSAILANT

FORMER PENDLETON DRUG-GIST NOW POLICEMAN.

In a Street Fight at Spokane, Dial Was Forced to Kill a Jealous Husband Who Had Shot His Wife's Paramour and Then Attacked the Policeman Who Interfered—Dial Formerly O. R. & N. Conductor and an Unsuccessful Candidate for City Marshal of Pendleton.

William Dial, formerly of Pendleton and for the past three years a policeman on the Spokane force, Tuesday night at 11 o'clock shot and killed Otis Claud, proprietor of the Broadway cafe.

Claud was attempting to kill one H. C. Stiles, whom he accused of being intimate with his wife, when Dial and Officer Roff interfered. Claud turned the pistol on the officers after Roff had shot over his head as a warning, and was then shot in the stomach by Dial. Claud died almost instantly.

When the trouble began Mrs. Claud was in a hack, having made an appointment with Stiles. Claud, who was suspicious and very jealous, had "caught on" and tried to intercept Stiles on the latter's way to the hack, which was in waiting for Stiles with Mrs. Claud. Claud began firing at Stiles, who jumped into the hack and ordered the driver to run. Before the vehicle could get under way Claud shot Stiles twice—in the shoulder and in the right hip. Neither is a dangerous wound, and Stiles will soon recover.

Stiles ran away as soon as Claud fell from the effects of Dial's shot, and was found at the house of a friend in another part of town.

Dial for many years was a conductor on the O. R. & N. between Pendleton and Huntington. Afterward he invested in the drug business here, at the present site of the Koepfen drug store, the establishment being conducted by a man named Marshall. Dial sold out to U. State and later went to Spokane and was for a time a conductor on the Great Northern, with a freight run. His home is at 112 Indiana avenue, Spokane. His wife and three children are living. In 1897 Dial was an unsuccessful candidate against John Heathman for marshal of Pendleton.

NO COUNCIL MEETING.

Absence of Councilmen and Mayor Prevents Business Session.

A man with a steam roller, "just as good as new," and a quorumless council met at the "city hall" last night. Chairman Dickson and Councilmen Johnson, Renn and Wells were the only city fathers present and after half an hour of waiting during which time subjects for from matters pertaining to Pendleton's affairs, were discussed, the meeting quietly disbanded.

A stranger appeared during the period of waiting and informed the councilmen that he represented a machinery company that had a second-hand road roller on its hands that could be purchased at a bargain. "I understand that Pendleton is desirous of purchasing a roller," he said.

"We have no particular use for a roller," said Mr. Dickson. "we did discuss a rock crusher at one time." "Well, we've got rock crushers, too," said the agent and he began to reach for his sample case, but the council had adjourned.

The company travels in its own special cars and is supplied with a large amount of new and beautiful scenery.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence, interment in the Olney cemetery. He had been sick but a few days. He had been employed by the East Oregonian as a carrier and errand boy, after school hours, and was bright and enterprising and was universally beloved.

R. M. Alcorn and wife, who have resided northwest of Pendleton on a farm for the past 22 years, have rented their home to Ed Terry and moved to this city to reside permanently. This is their first residence in the city, although they are pioneers of this vicinity and have made a success of farming in the wheat district northwest of here.

WAS FOUND GUILTY

LAMONT WAS CONVICTED OF LARCENY BY BAILEE.

Two Other Indictments: for Forgery and Obtaining Money Under False Pretenses, Still Confront the Candy-maker—Not Known Whether He Will Be Brought to Trial Under Them or Not—Jury Was Out Five Minutes.

Found guilty of larceny by bailee, George Lamont, the candy-maker who defrauded his employer, C. W. Irvin, still faces two other indictments, forgery and obtaining goods by false pretenses. Lamont was tried on the first named charge this morning and the jury required but five minutes to bring in a verdict of guilty.

Lamont was employed by C. W. Irvin, a local confectioner, for several months. In July he departed for Portland with $400 of Irvin's money with the understanding that he was to use it to purchase machinery for the candy factory. He later is said to have secured about $300 more from Irvin. He failed to return, or to send the machinery or money and he was arrested.

Lamont did not take the stand this morning in his own defense. The three witnesses called by the state were: Irvin and his wife, and Sheriff Taylor. It is not known whether the convicted man will be tried on the other two charges. If the case just disposed of is appealed he may be brought to trial on the other indictments, but if not, they will perhaps be dropped.

The jury selected to try the case was composed of the following: J. O. Hales, F. A. Gordon, Frank Byrd, J. C. Pritchett, J. Seivers, W. P. Leach, J. H. Hudeman, A. L. Demaria, Joseph Wurzer, Gus Schubert, William Schemppf, W. S. Badley.

GOSPEL SERVICES.

United Evangelicals Meet in Congregational Church.

The meetings conducted by the United Evangelical church on the north side are now being held in the Congregational church. Good interest was shown last evening at the first service there. Guy F. Phelps, who is assisting the pastor, spoke and will preach each evening at 7:45 o'clock. Mr. Phelps is a strong speaker. He not only interests his audience, but gives something worth while. All are welcome to the services. Every evening, 7:45 to 9.

HELEN GOULD IN DENVER.

Popular Daughter of the Great Financier Visits Y. M. C. A. Organizations.

"Oh, how do you do? So glad to be with you! Now that's nice of you to say that—Oh, yes, perfectly lovely—never enjoyed a trip more in my life!"

Those were the first words of Miss Helen Gould, when President Slocum of Colorado college, who came north with the party, had assisted her to alight from the Missouri Pacific train which brought her to Denver, says the Denver Post.

Then she was introduced to President William M. Danner of the Denver Y. M. C. A.

"Oh, Mr. Danner, and you let the newspapers publish my picture, after all my instructions to you!"

"But, Miss Gould, I couldn't—"

"There, there—I suppose it could not be helped—never mind—it's all right, anyway, I suppose; but you know I do dislike notoriety."

And yet Miss Gould smiled up at Mr. Danner all the time and she seemed almost girlish and very nearly pretty, as her really beautiful brown eyes flashed and her red lips parted and her white teeth shone.

Indeed, it is a very charming old-maidliness, that of Miss Gould. She does not show her age excessively, either. Though her figure has lost some of its youthful lines and might be denominated "dumpy," she moves springily and her brown hair shows no glint of gray, and her voice is more than mellow; it is sweet.

Her Charm.

Five minutes with Miss Gould makes one understand why people of all parts and in all walks of life adore her so much. Though vivacious, she is gentle, and she smiles and is considerate, even though she chides.

She extended her hand gently to Vice-President Schlacks of the Denver & Rio Grande road and told him how she appreciated all his courtesies. She was genial and gracious to the entire committee from the Y. M. C. A. and said she knew she was going to like Denver more than ever after this visit.

To inspect Railway Y. M. C. A.'s.

Miss Gould is here ostensibly for the purpose of inspecting the railroad Y. M. C. A. She has been through the state of Kansas, where she had been visiting all the larger branches of the Y. M. C. A. along the Gould system. She will remain here till Sunday night, when she intends to continue her trip to Colorado.

John La Roque Says Not Guilty.

John La Roque, of Athena, who is under arrest for horse stealing, having been accused by his brother, Joe La Roque, of taking a horse belonging to him, was brought down from Athena last evening by Special Constable D. C. McIntyre, to stand trial in the circuit court. Mr. La Roque produced an old agreement signed by himself and brother, Joe, and placed on file in the office of the county clerk in 1882, in which both brothers agreed to use the brand "E.L." as a joint brand, and all stock owned by them, under this brand, to be owned in partnership. The agreement was filed by County Clerk J. R. Keeney.

Looking for a Brother.

Henry Bloyd and his brother-in-law, Ross Jordan, of Paletine, Ind., arrived yesterday and have gone into the southern part of the county in search of the former's brother, Kester Bloyd, who wrote several weeks ago from Vancouver, Wash., that he was on his way to the southern part of Umatilla county to locate on government land. Subsequently they heard that he had been seen in La Grande by mutual acquaintances, but they failed to find any trace of him there and he has not taken out papers on government land. They think he is probably prospecting in the southern part of the county, or that he has gone farther into the interior.

Otto Koepfen Recovering.

Otto Koepfen has so far recovered from the operation upon his ankle as to be able to leave the hospital tomorrow. The last examination was thorough, and the abscess was not only thoroughly cleansed, but it was found that the bone was not in the slightest degree affected.

Marriage License Record.

John Wilfred Earl and Eldena Margaret Hendley, both of Umatilla county.

Clyde W. Frazier and Lulu E. Gilbert, both of Umatilla county.

JUMPING UP

Is a great deal harder than jumping down. And yet people who have been for years running down in health expect to jump back at once. It takes years generally to make a man a confirmed dyspeptic, and he cannot expect to be cured in a few days.

There is no quicker means of cure for dyspepsia or other forms of stomach trouble than by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and builds up the body with sound flesh and solid muscle.

"I was taken sick two years ago," writes Rev. W. H. Patterson, of White Cloud, Ind., "with what the doctors thought was gastric trouble, indigestion of nervous dyspepsia, also constipation and inactive liver. I was in a dreadful condition. Tried several different doctors with but little result. I had gotten so feeble that I was almost past traveling about; had got down to 114 pounds. I went and bought a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and got the 'Pellets' and began following directions. When I had taken about five bottles I felt very much better and was greatly improved, and weighed one hundred and thirty-eight pounds. I will say that Dr. Pierce's medicines are a God-send to poor suffering humanity, and I advise any and all chronic sufferers to give them a fair trial and they will be satisfied."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness and sick headache.

"All right," said the Mill, "I understand you want to be ground just right or there will be trouble. I'll do my part and see that you are 'granulated,' not 'pulverized,' as you pass through me. I know that coffee ground too fine tastes bitter. Skip along and keep your date with Kettle."

Nothing does with GOLDEN GATE COFFEE but satisfaction. No prices—no coupons—no crockery. 1 and 2 lb. aroma-tight tins. Never sold in bulk.

INSANE FROM INJURIES.

Traveler Injured in Perry Wreck Was a Highly Educated Man.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Johnson, of Union county, passed down the O. R. & N. last night in charge of W. G. Miller, the unfortunate man who was severely injured in the wreck on the O. R. & N. at Perry about a month ago. Miller will be confined in the asylum until he recovers from his injuries. Since his accident he has been insane, having rational intervals of a few minutes, but has completely lost his memory and has partly lost his speech.

Miller is a highly educated man, being able to write the Pittman system of shorthand rapidly, as well as a beautiful long hand. He claims to have worked on several leading Pacific coast papers and to have been a court reporter somewhere, but has forgotten where.

At the time of the accident in which he was injured, he was riding on the "blind baggage" between the mail car and tender of the engine, and was severely crushed. He was broke and looking for work and intended to stop off in La Grande.
